From The President

AMTF President
 Anchors Aweigh with AMTF!

As we have returned to the new normal, life has resumed to business as usual. Through the hustle and bustle of our daily routines, we take the time each summer to celebrate our accomplishments, reconnect with our friends and colleagues, network and make new acquaintances, and award hard working students with scholarships to continue carrying forward our great profession. It is with great excitement that I invite you to attend this year’s annual business meeting and dinner. The event will be held in Providence, Rhode Island on Thursday, June 29th. Come dressed in your best nautical gear and sail away with us as we celebrate the induction of our newest members while we enjoy the comradery of all those who have come before us, as well as our current members. All Captains, Pirates, and Cruise Guests are welcome aboard to celebrate and renew our focus on raising scholarship funds to continue to support student scholarships.

Helping students and providing scholarships is why we come together each year. During the annual business meeting we will introduce and recognize AMTF scholarship recipients and raise funds to continue our support for the next year. AMTF’s membership donations are used every year to support numerous scholarships to students in undergraduate and graduate programs.
